

Mario Wilson

Customer Solutions Advisor

I grew up in a construction family and on job sites as early as I can remember. I loved providing solutions to problems and working alongside skilled and dedicated people. I spent 13 years in the Navy before returning to the construction industry, which taught me countless skills like work ethic, attention to detail, clear communication and developing trust. I understand the challenges involved in finding a reliable and qualified contractor. I will streamline your search and connect you with the best contractor to fit your needs, who has the right skills and experience to complete your job on time and on budget.

About Mario Wilson

I spent 13 years in the US Navy as a SEAL team member and it was an incredible experience. I ultimately separated from the Navy to spend more time with my growing family, and I shifted to civilian life. These days I love working out, snowboarding, stand up paddle boarding and playing with my dogs.
